

Open CALL: long term ESC vacancy in Milan, Italy

“The Future is Nonviolence II”

Duration 12 months from September 2020

The Host Organisation

The mission of Casapace Milano is to overturn the structural violence of reality through the power of nonviolence. Casapace has been hosting and sending European volunteers since 2008.

Fields

Nonviolence, immigration, human rights, social theatre, gender equality, non-formal education, art, ecology and sustainable consumption

Activities

- Support educators in workshops or training courses at schools
- Support the Italian language school for immigrants
- Get involved with people who have committed minor crimes and are serving an alternative sentence
- Organize community events like the “Theater of the Oppressed Milano Festival”
- Update the website, manage social networks and write email newsletter

Volunteer’s profile (skills / interests / attitude)

- Coming from a European country
- Basic knowledge of Italian and English / Spanish / Arabic
- IT and audiovisual skills (Word, Excel, social media, photography, video editing)
- Art, Theatre, Music (calligraphy, handicraft, painting, singing, playing an instrument)
- Being interested in: nonviolent conflict resolution, community development, non-formal education, people empowerment, ecology and world politics
- Being ready to live in a shared space and in a multicultural environment

Application process

After reading the complete CALL www.casaperlapacemilano.it/en/esc

please send your CV and Motivation Letter to the Mentor: Mariano evs@casaperlapacemilano.it

EUROPEAN SOLIDARITY
CORPS